Look at your point total, and compare it to the grading scale to the right. This is what your course grade will be if you skip the Final Exam and take a zero score. The maximum score is 300.

If you take the Final Exam, I will replace any missed exam(s) with your Final Exam score, then drop your lowest exam score.

See the syllabus for more info on the grading policy. Your grade is based on your actual exam scores. I reserve the right to correct any errors in this posting.
