V. EXAMS & QUIZZES, VI. GRADING POLICY: The grading policy is revised as of 3/30, after two online 'lectures', two online quizzes, and since some policy clarifications at a Department of Economics faculty meeting held on Tues., March 24.

I expect that you'll be available to complete quizzes during our regularly scheduled class time. However, I may provide extra flexibility.

Quizzes will be around 10 questions each (but may have more or fewer questions). You will be given 1.5 minutes per question once you begin the quiz. The "Final Quiz" will have 30 questions, and you will have 45 minutes to complete it. OAKS quizzes will usually have one question per page, and you will not be able to move backwards on the quiz. However, you can use notes and books if you wish.

The grade weights for these are indicated in the table below.

Assignment	Points	Date (* tentative)	Coverage
Quiz 1	20	Jan. 30	lectures A&B
Exam 1	40	Feb. 25	lectures A-E
[moved class online]
Quiz F	10	Mar. 24, 9:25-9:45	lecture F
Quiz G	10	Mar. 26, 10:30-4:00	lecture G
Quiz H	10	Mar. 31, 9:00-noon	lecture H
Quiz I	10	Apr. 2, 9:00-noon	lecture I
Quiz J	10	Apr. 9, 9:00-noon	lecture J
Quiz K	10	Apr. 16, 9:00-noon	lecture K
"Final Quiz"	30	Apr. 25, 9:00-10:00 [strict time window]	[comprehensive; see course outline]
Total	150

As the table indicates, there are now 150 points available. I will replace any missed quizzes (no excuses necessary for missing quizzes) with your Final "Quiz" score. Then I will drop your lowest 50 points worth of assignments. Your grade will be based on 100 total points, at a 90-80-70-60 scale. I may also use +/- grades, at my discretion.

After Quiz K, I will calculate your grades and post them on the course webpage. This posting will indicate what your final course grade will be if you decide to skip the Final "Quiz" and take a zero score on it.

If you received any extra credit for the course during Adam Smith Week, those points will be added to your total points, after the adjustments mentioned above.
